EDINGLASIE U.F.A. FAVOR RAISING COYOTE BOUNTIES AND MAY INSTAL A RADIO

There was a good attendance at the meeting of the Edinglasie U. F.
A. held last Thursday evening, and a number of important matters were dealt with by the members.

A resolution in favor of a municipal bounty on coyotes was passed and the secretary instructed to forward it to the municipal council.

The matter of installing a community radio outfit was brought up for consideration and received with much favor. No decision was reached. It being left over for a later meeting.

A tentative plan of social meetings
during the winter session was considered, and it was decided to hold the next meeting at G. D. Cunningham's residence, Thursday December 7th. This will also be the annual meeting.

PROVOST FARMERS SAVED MONEY ON UNITED SHIPMENT

Co-operative marketing received a decided boost in the Provost and Car districts yesterday, when the result of the co-operative shipment of a carload of live poultry was announced.

Organized by poultry officials of the dominion and provincial poultry services, eighty-five farmers in the districts named, joined in a experimental shipment of freight of 3,841 pounds, net weight, of live poultry. An ordinary open stock car was used, and the birds were shipped in the usual type of crate. The car made fast time to the city, and the birds arrived in excellent condition.

The shipment totalled 2,600 head, in 168 crates, and the freight bill was $111.90. If shipped by express in the regular manner the cost would have been $210, showing a net saving of $98.10 to the shippers.

CANADIAN NATIONAL RAILWAYS ANNOUNCE WINTER EXCURSIONS

Another year is approaching to its close, and with it the thoughts of many are turned to the old folks at home. The festive season brings with it memories of long ago—childhood memories that can never fade away—and even though it may only be a short time since one last paid a visit home, thoughts of another trip will not be muted.

Extra preparations by the Canadian National Railways have been made to carry the exodus of people who will make a visit to their old home.
No railway company is better equipped for the conveying of people this season than the Canadian National.
For several weeks officials have been preparing for heavy travel during the next two months, as this railway now offers unsurpassed service.

It does not matter where one wants to visit. An opportunity is presented to all. If it is in Eastern Canada, the Canadian National will have on sale from December 1st to January 5th, tickets at greatly reduced fares good for return within three months and stopovers are permitted at most points en route, with choice of routes.
Provision has been made for an extension of return limits beyond three months, upon payment of a small additional amount.

During the month of December, and up to January 5th, there will also be low excursion fares by Canadian National Railways to certain points in the Central States—Duluth, Minneapolis, St. Paul, Milwaukee, Chicago, Cedar Rapids, Council Bluffs, Des Moines, Fort Dodge, Marshalltown

MOTHER GOOSE LENDS A HAND

Old King Coal
Was a merry old soul.
But enemies he had many.
For the people burned wood
Whenever they could,
And saved themselves many a penny.

Now Old King Coal
Has them under control,
And he wears a large smile on his brow,
For the god that kills
Has robbed our hills,
And the trees do not grow there now.

TWINKLE, TWINKLE

Twinkle, twinkle, little toes,
Till three a.m. there's no repose.
Up and down the room you fly.
Little maiden, tell me why.

"Cause I love it, little man,
I shall dance while dance I can;
But when I am grey and old,
Jazzing then may leave me cold

But, whilst I am brisk and bright
Why not dance till morning light
Sir, I seldom snore my eye
Till the sun is in the sky!"

Twinkle, twinkle little toes,
Glad you need such short repose
But my dear, I've got a hunch,
You oft lie in bed till lunch.

Present neglect makes future regret

That the average tax for municipalities in the province for 1922 is $48.31 in 1922?

That the average school mill rate for the last five years, including 1922, has been 10.20 mills?

That the councillors for the odd-numbered divisions commence office in an odd numbered year, and the councillors for even numbered divisions commence office in even numbered years?

That the boundaries of the municipality are north and northwest, the Battle river; East, the east side of 44-45-3rd and the east side of 45-26-3 and 44-26-3 and Manitou Lake; South the south sides of 45-46-3, 45-47-3, and 45-26-3; West, the 4th meridian.

That there is sixty miles of main highways to maintain yearly outside of other local roadways?

U.F.A. MEMBERSHIP DROPS
FROM 38,000 TO 15,000 IN YEAR

United Farmer of Alberta membership has decreased from 38,000 in September 30th 1921 to 15,000 in September 30th 1922, according to the official figures contained in the U.F.A. official journal of that organization. The enormously decreased membership and consequent falling off in revenue were matters of serious consideration at the recent executive meeting at Calgary recently. No effort is made to explain the decreasing membership but the journal says a policy of strictest retrenchment must be undertaken "right away." One of the economies decided upon was the elimination of all organization work, other than of a voluntary nature for an indefinite period.

Papa: "Go and ask your mother, Willie. She always has the last word."

After the meeting a lunch was handed round by the ladies, during which Mr. K. W. Coe gave an address and made an earnest appeal for funds for the National Blind Institution. His remarks were listened to with much interest and attention, and it is hoped that something will be done to respond to the appeal of the institution. Nov. 17th has been set apart as Grain Growers membership day and the secretary (K. W. Coe) hopes to visit all who are not members to induce them to become members of the Fram local.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

HONOUR TO THE HEROES

It was most fitting that Chauvin and district should be afforded an opportunity of honoring those who gave their lives for our freedom through the initiative of the C.W.V.A., and the 18th Alberta Dragoons.

It is no easy task to forget

THE UNFINISHED WORK

As we recall the memory of those who went from this district but never returned we are forced to realize that they were all good citizens. More than that many of them were outstanding characters who contributed largely to the upbuilding of the district, agriculturally, commercially and finally crowned their labors by paying the supreme sacrifice.

But was their supreme sacrifice the final accomplishment of their purpose. Assuredly not. Was the successful termination of the Great War the culmination of their grand objective? Again, assuredly not.

WHICH WE MUST "CARRY ON"

It is left for us to remain to carry on. And in carrying on to do our duty to honor. They felt that the grand ideals of our nation should be preserved from destruction. They succeeded. Now it is ours to perpetuate all that is noble and good in our national and community life, and thus to at once pay our tribute to those who have gone before, and fulfil our obligations to those who shall follow.

He who only perceives the military aspect of the memorial ceremonies has failed to grip the grand ideals which led these men to suffer for a better, happier, and peaceful Canada.

DECREASED U.F.A. MEMBERSHIP

Like a bolt from the blue comes the news that there has been a very serious decrease in the membership of the U.F.A. within the past year.

At the same time there comes a ruling in favor of rigid economy, but no re-constructive policy is announced.

The larger part of the decrease of the membership may be attributed to non-payment of dues. But having made all due allowance for the keen stringency that undoubtedly exists all over our province we are forced to look further for the cause.

ACTION AND RE-ACTION

In walking, it is but natural that when the right foot comes forward the left should become the rear foot take a backward position. So it is in all progress, action and reaction have each a part to play. U.F.A. men ship is suffering reaction. The left foot or propaganda versus the right foot of political action.

Our metaphor, however, is not complete. Normal re-action and financial stringency theories are not enough to explain the big loss of membership. The wheat bawfiasco and present indecision on the matter is largely to blame for the present situation.

DO YOUR OWN THINKING

Try a little thinking on your own account. The novelty of it would repay a lot of people for the experiment. Don't borrow your language and your thoughts all the time. Go for a walk with yourself occasionally. It may turn out to be quite an adventure.

DAY BY DAY

When day is things up I rise and dust my feet from the floor. I deck myself in dyes and studs, and rub my face with washing suds.

I smear some lather on my chin, and shave the bristles, thick and thin; and when the scraping job is done, I leave my bed-room at a run.

A hasty breakfast in my throat, I grab my shabby hat and coat, and dash off wildly down the street, the early morning train to meet.

Such is my everyday routine, which may remain the same, I mean, until I have no beard to bare or face to wash or clothes to wear.

If you're ashamed of your position you should be ashamed of yourself.

THE BEST HARVEST

There are those who as they pass along life's pathway may gather to themselves a harvest of money. Money is something, but not everything. It can be used or abused. It can do good—or evil. Other pilgrims, as they pass, gather to themselves a harvest of fame. That also is something, but not everything.

The best harvest is that of friends. He who has no friends is the poorest man in the world.

Gather, therefore, of those other good things which life may bring you, but remember that the best harvest is friends.

Sympathy, courtesy, helpfulness—these, and the attraction of your own character will bring them to your side and keep them there.

Cultivate friendships in the spring of life, so that when the autumn and winter come you may walk through the frosty days in company.

Of a truth, 'tis better to be homeless than friendless. Adversity and not of your fault, may make you homeless. To be friendless means that you are self-condemned. You lacked something, and thereby gained no friend. While there is time, gather to yourself friends. They are life's most precious possession.

Eucalyptus oil will remove grease from any kind of material without injuring it. Apply the oil with a clean flannel, and rub gently until the mark disappears.

Pay Your Taxes

Taxes provide the lifeblood of your community. If taxes were not paid, your schools would close, road work would cease, hospitals would close their doors, all community life would come to a standstill. Your first duty as a good citizen is to pay your taxes and if at all possible to pay them when the tax bills are sent out.

Every day of delay in payment of taxes puts an additional burden upon the men you have chosen to look after the affairs of your municipality, adds to the difficulty of financing and the cost of administration. Sooner or later all taxes have to be paid. WHY NOT PAY YOURS NOW?

"POPPY DAY"

"Poppy" Day will be held in Canada as well as in all the Allied countries on Armistice Day, November 11. The campaign in Alberta will be conducted by the Provincial Command of the Alberta Great War Veterans Association, and the actual selling will be in the hands of the various local scout troops of the province.

In this connection it is stated that there are a number of districts in Alberta where the veterans are not organized, and in such instances any other organization willing to conduct the campaign there is requested to get in touch with R. Gallacher, the Provincial Secretary, 297-8 Oddfellows Block, Calgary. It is hoped to have the province so organized that citizens in every district will have an opportunity to secure a poppy and wear it on Armistice Day.

The flowers will be sold during the week preceding Armistice Day. The entire proceeds from the fund raised among disabled returned men and their dependents in the province. Each citizen is urged to wear a poppy in honor of the men who fought so bravely during the Great War and "In memory of those who lie amid the crosses".

AMEND GAME LAWS

Hoadley, Minister of Agriculture, intends to introduce a bill at the next Session of the Legislature to amend The Game Act, giving the Minister power to grant permits to farmers who are suffering loss from prairie chickens, to shoot them on one or two days of season as the case may demand. This does not mean an extension of the shooting season, and the privilege will not be extended to sportsmen.

ATHABASCA SANDS

Acarload of tar sands from the Athabasca River deposits at Port McMurray, Alberta, has been shipped to Wales for experimental purposes. An oil extraction plant is now being erected at Port McMurray ETAGIN ETA of a few miles from Port McMurray by Eastern parties, who have invented machinery by which they hope to extract the oils from sand on a commercial scale, at a cost which will enable them to be put on the market cheaper than prevailing prices.

MEMORIAL SERVICE HELD IN L.O.O.F. HALL SUNDAY BY VETERANS AND DRAGOONS

A memorial service was held in the Oddfellow Hall Chauvin last Sunday afternoon, under the auspices of the Chauvin G. W. V. A. and the 19th Alberta Dragoons. Capt. McLeod and Rev. Father Huet officiating.

The 19th Alberta Dragoons paraded at the G.W.V.A. Hall and marched to the Oddfellow hall to the music of piper Jeff Swan.

During the devotions Capt. McLeod drew the attention of those assembled to the wreath placed on the Roll of Honor and a silent tribute was paid by all to the memory of the fallen in the Great War.

Rev. Father Huet in an eloquent address said in part:—

My dear Friends,
Gladly answering the kind invitation of Mr. Strachan to attend this anniversary service, presided over by Rev. Chaplain McLeod, in memory of our beloved dead soldiers, I commend you to remember devotedly the forever unforgettable Armistice Day of the 11th of November 1918, when the truce was signed in the forest of Compiègne in presence of the great Foch, thus putting an end to the bloodiest of all wars.

Those who shed their blood on the battlefield, in Flanders, especially at Courcellette, Vimy, Mons, Verdun, Cambrai and St. Quentin are entitled to our veneration and our pious respect and your presence here shows you did not fail to come and offer to all those brave heroes your tribute of gratitude and praise.

Among those present, all who went to the battlefield, know all the sacrifices and hardships which those fallen heroes had to go through in order to save humanity from the co called German Kultur.

In 1914, at the beginning of the barbarous invasion when the Germans were advancing with long strides towards Paris and when they had already reached the gate of their goal at Chantilly, there came Joffre "Old Papa Joffre," as he was called by soldiers who barred their way on the Marne and inflicted upon them a memorable defeat.

But the final crushing victory, we owe it to Foch, with the co-operation of Marshall Haig, put an end to the terrible war whose cruel remembrance will never be effaced from our memory.

I do not think it is necessary to remind you the brilliant and gallant exploits accomplished by our valorous Canadian soldiers, especially by our brave 22nd battalion. Those valiant men went to battle while singing and inflamed by the smell of the powder blood, they fought like lions, their officers having the greatest difficulty to keep them under control.

Well, if ever such a dreadful war should be started again—and we must then you not to witness such a thing—then you must imitate them, fight like them—Don't be timorous but valiant.

Those pretty little poppies you all are wearing today, ladies and gentlemen, they grow on the graves of our fallen soldiers—and they symbolize the pure red blood they shed so generously on the battlefields to save humanity. Let us wear those poppies, in respect for our fallen soldiers, those innocent victims of the Great War, the most inhuman one than ever was.

Let us read and read again the story of that disastrous war, so that its remembrance better impresses our memory, not to fade away during our life and for a long, long time to come. Capt. McLeod in his address made reference to the fame which had come to Canada through her part in the Great War. Her soldiers were not men of the barracks square but men who fought for the high ideals that Canadians hold so dear. Canadians have earned a reputation for sincerity of ideals, tenacity of purpose and accomplishment. These qualities were eulogized by the speaker who impressed his hearers keenly with a vision of the higher ideals of Canadian life and liberty. He urged all present to take their part in community and national upbuilding.

After the service the Dragoons and Major Strachan who commended the men to their smart turnout.

Bess: "Somebody has passed a counterfeit quarter on Bob a year ago and he hasn't been able to get rid of it since."

Maiden Aunt (horried): "What! Doesn't that young man ever go to church?"

A GOVERNMENT JOB
They were tired and dirty, but still talkative, they discussed the problem of work.
"Bill," said one, "you don't hanker after a government job, do you?"
"Well," retorted the other, "I'd perhaps take one if it was suitable like that. Not mind you, that I'm adverse to doing a little bit of work to earn my wages."
"Why what sort of job would you like?"
"Well, something like filling fountain pens for some assistant secretary of the Treasury."

MIND THE STEP
Two countrymen came up to London for the first time, and stayed in a West-End hotel.
After they had changed for dinner they set forth in search of the staircase, and came upon a dark lift shaft the gate of which had been left open by a careless attendant. Seeing lights below him, the first man stepped down.
There was a dull thud. "Are you all right, James?" shrieked his companion anxiously.
"Yes," Came the feeble reply, "but mind the first step, it's a deep 'un!"
"Of the two, choose to be a popular listener rather than an unpopular talker."

ADVERTISE-IT PAYS

HEAVY HINTING
Brown was noted for making the most of a good thing. He went to stay with some friends in the country, and greatly outstayed his welcome. His host, tired of hinting, at last became desperate.
"I am afraid, Brown," he said, "I will never visit me again."
"Oh, yes, I shall!" replied the un- welcome guest. "I've enjoyed myself immensely!"
"Still, I don't think you will ever visit me again," repeated his host.
"But why?"
"Because if ever you go away, you will never be able to pay me a visit again!"

HARD WORK
The dear old lady was being shown over a large linen. They were proceeding along the upper deck.
"What's that down there?" she asked her guide.
"That's the steerage, madam," he replied.
"Really?" she exclaimed. "To think that it takes all those people to make the boat go straight!"

'NUFF SAID
Smith, the fruit farmer, and Jones, a manufacturer's agent, were talking show together.
"I can never understand," said Jones, "how you manage to use such an enormous quantity of pears and peaches."
"Well," Smith answered, "we sell what we can, and can what we can't."
"Ah," replied the other, "that's about what we do!"
"What's that?"
"We sell an order when we can sell it, and when we can't we cancel it!"

SMILE
"It is said," he said, "that you are smiling at me."
"I am smiling at you," he said, "because you are smiling at me."
"What is said, under?" said his up-to-date nephew politely.
"People are not what they used to be!" he said. He shook his head again more reverently than ever.
"Well I'm sure they're no worse. And what used they to be, anyway?"
"Children!" sighed his uncle.

IT MADE A DIFFERENCE
A lady orator, speaking on the subject of "sex-equality" at a crowded meeting, delivered the following challenge:
"If there is any man in this audience who would like to hear that his wife had been slandered, let him stand up."
To everyone's surprise, a meek-looking man jumped to his feet.
"Do you man to say," shouted the lady orator, "that you would like to hear your wife had been slandered?"
"Oh!" murmured the meek-looking man as he sat down again. "I thought you said slandered."

Merchant: "Look here that safe you sold me last month you told me was a burglar proof safe, and I found it cracked this morning and filled of its contents."
Agent: "Well, isn't that proof that you've had a burglar."

HIS DIFFICULTY
The form-master was angry when Thomas appeared ten minutes late for school one morning.
"Why are you late, Tommy?" he said sharply.
"Please, sir," replied the slacker, "it was late when I started from home."
"Then why did you not start early?"
"Please sir, it was too late to start early."

A SAD STORY!
Little Johnnie was sobbing as his heart would break. The kind old lady stopped when she saw him.
"And what are you crying for, my little man?" she inquired tenderly.
"My sister's cat was drowned today," he sobbed.
"How touching! And did you love your sister's cat so dearly?"
"No; only father gave me such a beating for throwing it down the well!"

MAKING SURE
An enterprising British company operating in the Soudan had decided to lay a railway line into the wilds, and many blacks were employed on this construction.
One day the telegraph clerk at the nearest civilised post received a telegram from the negro foreman: "The railway constructors: 'White boss dead. Shall I bury him?'"
"Yes," wired back the clerk. "But first make sure he is quite dead. Will send another white boss to-morrow."
A few hours later another telegram came from the foreman:
"Buried boss. Made sure he was dead. Hit him on the head with a shovel."

No trials, no triumphs

REDUCED-FARES TO THE PACIFIC COAST

The Canadian National Railways will sell tickets at greatly reduced fares from points Winnipeg and Emerson west in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta to Vancouver, Victoria and New Westminster, on December 5th, 7th, 12th, 14th, 19th, 21st, 26th and 28th, 1923; January 2nd, 4th, 8th, 11th, 16th, 18th, 23rd, 26th, and February 6th, and 8th, 1923.

Travelling on the Canadian National to the Pacific Coast is a better way pleasure. There is no better way of taking a holiday than by a trip over this holiday-the enjoyment starts when you do, and you do not have to wait for pleasurable experiences until you reach your destination. The Canadian National Railways owns and operates its own sleeping cars and dining cars. These cars, on through trains, are models of luxury and convenience built by experts and embodying improvements resulting from long years of experience in studying the requirements of first class travel. An additional convenience is provided by tourist car service, Canadian National tourist cars are all new and embody the latest and most modern improvements. Charges are only half those for accommodation in standard sleeping cars. For those bringing lunch and desiring to do their own cooking en route, a kitchen is provided in a compartment shut off from the rest of the car. A fire is kept constantly burning in the cook stove and a sink with taps provides hot and cold running water.

The dining cars, with their band-stands, music, quiet decorative details and adequate arrangements, furnish a meal time environment both useful and pleasing and at reasonable cost. All passengers have access to the Dining Cars.
The Canadian National Railways offers patrons the option of travelling all rail to Vancouver or rail to Prince Rupert, thence Grand Trunk Pacific steamships to either Vancouver or Victoria; or the trip may be made going one way and returning the other.
A greater influx of tourists and excursionists is expected at these North Pacific Coast resorts, as these cities have taken considerable trouble to make the countryside acquainted with the beauties of our coast points as winter resorts.

EDGERTON ECHOES

Hallowe'en is come and gone and we can truthfully say that the occasion was celebrated in fitting style, as far as our city is concerned. Few business places were accessible on the following morning and, although real damage was not done, an irate drayman was minus his livestock and we believe witches must have been in evidence at his expense. She would neither eat, drink nor milk. Shades of All Hallow's, is witchery still prevalent in this enlightened age?

Our church has recently been thoroughly overhauled and the windows nicely decorated. Does this portend future events? We shall see.

Pete and Short Bob and Tige took in the fowl supper at Ribstone, pumping down on a hand car. Working their passage so to speak.

Rev. Madocks, Miss Madocks and Bill Kelly took in the big social at Silgo recently and reported a very enjoyable evening at the school.

A big meeting of skaters and hockey boys was called for last Tuesday, but never a single one turned out. This is very disappointing especially when we have an open-air rink freed up in such good shape and so easy of access. There is no finer, and more healthful winter pastime and we would advise parents to take a little more interest in their children's welfare and see to it that another meeting is called and that they attend and get this matter going. They are assured of the hearty support of the organized curlers but they must not get the idea that their support is not needed. Ladies are particularly referred to in this matter.

The frosty weather of the past few days has put a stop to all field work and several of the curlers are "frozen."

to go at ice-making on the rink.

The Novelty Hawaiians gave a concert in Gorton's Hall on Saturday evening to a fair crowd. Some of the Hawaiians must feel on snakes' legs, judging from their movements. We cannot arrive at any other conclusion.

Monday was observed as a holiday and we took the opportunity of doing a little work in the interests of more comfort in our home.

FOWL SUPPER & BAZAAR

AT RIBSTONE: NOV. 10
A Fowl Supper and Bazaar will be held November 10th in the Municipal Hall, Ribstone, under the auspices of the L. D. S. Ladies Auxiliary. Supper from 6 to 8 o'clock. Admission, adults 50c; children under twelve, 25c. A hearty invitation is extended to all.

LAW EXAMINATIONS

The teachers of the Law Society of Alberta have now published the list of successful students at the September examinations conducted at the University of Alberta, and we notice that Tom Harker Saul, c.o., Fieldhouse & Hunter, has passed his final examination.

CHAUVIN SCHOOL GIRLS MAKE GOOD SELLING POPPIES FOR THE G.W.V.A.

The Great War Veterans' Association wishes to express its thanks and appreciation for the manner in which the Principal and Students of the High School of Chauvin carried out the arrangements for the Sale of Poppies for 1922. The money is to be used for the relief of needy returned men, after the cost of the poppies has been paid; and after providing for the cost of the Poppy Song, the Memorial Tablet by the Rev. Lt. Col. McLeod on Sunday, Nov. 11th.

The students taking part in the Poppy Sale, and the amounts realized by them are as follows:-

Miss Erna Haas 2.40; Miss Ina Armour 2.45; Miss Thelma Armour 2.15; Miss Belle Burton, $4.55; Olive Heffern 31.85; Elma Ross 2.45; Heather Richardson 55.20; Gretchen Richardson 136.00—Total $26.85.

WITCHES THAT KNOW A LOT VISIT CHAUVIN

All Hallowe'en was celebrated in Chauvin by a Domino party given by the W. I. in the L.O.O.F. Hall. Cards games were played for a while to allow those coming from a distance to get in before the program for the evening commenced. The ladies forming the different committees had been working very hard to make the evening's arrangements as appropriate and attractive as possible and much credit is due to them for the excellent manner in which all arrangements were carried out. The fortune telling caused much fun and we wonder how much the witches knew about their clients. The moonlight dance was also much enjoyed. A point race was amongst the items on the program. Supper served by the ladies, after Every one did justice to the excellent which dancing was the order of the evening till the company dispersed having had a real good time.

EXCELLENT SERVICE FOR EASTERN CANADA EXCURSIONS

With the operation of the "Continental Limited" to and from the East, with suitable branch line connections, and also with the operation of the "National" from Winnipeg to Toronto, connecting with all Ontario points, the Canadian National Railway offers an unexcelled service for those who contemplate taking advantage of Eastern Canada excursions this winter. The sleeping and Dining Cars are second to none and the meals served in the Dining Cars are now at a reasonable price and within reach of all.

The excursions to the East commence December 1st, when the Canadian National Railways will have on sale daily and up to January 15th, first class round trip tickets at single fare and one third, from all stations Winnipeg and Emerson west in Manitoba, Saskatchewan, and Alberta. Tickets will be good for three months from date of issue with certain stop-over and extension privileges.—D-13

A coat space of four inches between dancing couples, and all unmarried girls under seventeen to go home at nine, unless they have their mother with them, are two clauses in a "bill" to reform dancing, put forward by an American politician.

OUR LITTLE ADS DO BIG WORK

USEFUL MEASURES IN THE KITCHEN

If you haven't any scales you will find it useful to remember that:—

1 oz flours equals 1 heaped tablespoonful.
1 oz of fat equals 1 level tablespoonful
1 oz of loaf sugar equals 5 or 6 lump

1 oz of soft sugar equals 1 heaped tablespoonful.
1 oz of currants equals 1 tablespoonful
1 oz of bread crumbs equals half a

teacupful

1 oz of molasses equals 1 teacupful

And in liquids:—

½ pint equals 1 breakfastcupful
1 gill equals 1 teacupful

A lawyer was defending a burglar accused of housebreaking.

"I submit, your honor," said the lawyer, "that my client did not break into the house at all. He merely saw a window, inserted his arm, and removed a few articles. Now, my client's arm is not himself. Why punish his whole body when his arm is the guilty member?"

"That argument is well put," said the judge. "Sentence the arm to twelve months imprisonment."

The prisoner smiled, took off his wooden arm, and walked out.

Some people are not liars—they are just economical with the truth.

"I can't do a thing with Jones," said the manager. "I've had him in three departments, and he does all day long."

"Put him at the pyjama counter," suggested the proprietor, "and fasten this card on him."

"Our night-clothes are of such superior quality that even the man who sells them cannot keep awake."

NEAT BUT NASTY

Mother was entertaining a few friends, and young hopeful was being duly shown off, and resented it, as all young people do.

"Whom do you like best?" asked one friend.

"Mother," was the reply.

"Who next?" asked another.

"Little sister"

"Who next?"

"Aunt."

Father, who was seated at the back opened his mouth and said: "And when do I come in?"

"At two o'clock in the morning!" was the reply.
